

ANGELE ALINE
“Sailing Again to Save Lives”
2008 Round the UK Charity Voyage

Dunkirk Roll of Honour

“Operation Dynamo” saved the lives of countless Allied servicemen in WWII – and the Angele Aline played her part. As one of the famous “Little Ships” of the Dunkirk evacuation, she fought her way to the beaches on several occasions to help save the lives of 300 soldiers.

If you know of anyone who was part of “Operation Dynamo” please give all the details you can in the form below. (Please print off form and send to Mrs J Lindsay, School House, Flempton, Bury St Edmunds, Suffolk, IP28 6EG)

Name	Role in “Operation Dynamo”	Any further information (please limit to approx. 50 words)